

Gather and Celebrate

How to get to Nundle

When planning a celebration or gathering, contact the friendly volunteers at the Nundle Visitor Information Outlet for advice on hosting your wedding, birthday, conference or function at Nundle.

Mount Misery Gold Mine Café, Arc-en-ciel Trout Farm, Café Nundle on the Park, The Peel Inn and Nundle Bowling Club serve delicious lunches and dinners for smaller get togethers.

The DAG Sheep Station, The Peel Inn, Nundle Memorial Hall, Nundle Bowling Club and Nundle Pony Club offer venues for weddings, birthday parties, and family reunions. It is not unusual to see vintage cars, motorbikes and bicycles lined up along Jenkins Street as groups of like-minded stop for lunch along their scenic journey.

Nundle may be reached from the east by Thunderbolts Way through Gloucester and from the west by the New England Highway north of Wallabadah and at Nemingha north of Tamworth.

Stay and Explore

Nundle, a peaceful, historic town built on the back of the 1850s gold rush, marks the beginning of The Fossicker's Way.

The fresh mountain air contributes to a good night's sleep at accommodation ranging from luxury B&B, hotel, motel, self-contained cabins and cottages, and bunkhouses to camping at the tourist park or recreation reserves.

Come and Play

Nundle Woollen Mill inspires with its kaleidoscope of yarn spun on vintage machinery and stylish woollen fashion. Browse Odgers and McClelland Exchange Stores for hard-to-find enamel cookware. Sacs on Jenkins brings together on-trend fashion and accessories. Nundle Natural Skin Solutions offers skin, body, nail and hair care products for the entire family.

Nundle Country Traders, Ratters Flat Antiques and Jenkins Street Antiques and Fine China and Old Church Boutique are Aladdin's caves for antiques and bric-a-brac lovers. Nundle Craft sells home baked, home grown and home made goods.

The Cottage on the Hill attracts patchworkers who gather for retreats, or stock up on fabrics and patterns for their next project. Nundle Art Gallery exhibits fine art and craft by regional artisans and the owners' Volcania Art Glass.

Throw in a line at Arc-en-ciel Trout Farm, join an information tour, or shop for gifts and trout products. Fish at Sheba Dams, Chaffey Dam or the Peel River. Join the Nundle Bushwalking Club's monthly meander, splash in the Nundle Public Pool, swing, slide and climb at the wool-themed playground, enjoy a game of bowls or a round of golf with one of the prettiest views in the country.
