Round one of the 2019/2020 waste voucher trial started in July 2019.

Did you get your waste voucher? If not, it could be that it was unable to be delivered.

Some vouchers that were unable to be delivered will be returned to the Nundle Office for redistribution. You may also like to check that Council has your correct physical address (i.e. not just a PO Box). Addresses that say Jenkins Street Nundle or Crawney Road Nundle can be difficult to find! So call in or ring and check the address that Council have for you Odgers and McClelland Exchange Stores' physical shop will be closed for three weeks from Monday, September 9-Friday to September 27 to allow for replacement of its deteriorating verandah.

The new verandah has been designed in consultation with Tamworth Regional Council heritage architect Clare James.

It will more closely reflect the earliest available photograph of the store. Materials will be reused where possible.

Please stock up on your needs before construction begins. Online sales will continue during this period and the physical store will reopen for the spring school holidays on Saturday, September 28.
