TRC App

Have you downloaded the updated version of the TRC App

You can now Report it— report problems, find the status of sports facilities, check your waste service day or report a missed waste collection, check water restrictions, dam levels, contact council, online community and find out the latest news

Online Data bases at the library

Doing your family history, interested in other areas such as Arts and Crafts or Antiques

Did you know that joining the library will give you access to a number of data bases for free— and it's free to join the library!

Data bases available include

State Library of NSW—eresources Access State Library of NSW eResources using your CNRL membership card. To use this database first Register using your library membership number.

Once registered visit the State Library Resources.

Carters Price Guide to Antiques-Provides prices and information on art antiques, antiques, collectables, retro, vintage and 20th century design

Hobby & Craft Reference Centre Covers many of the most popular hobbies and crafts with detailed "how to" instructions and creative ideas.

Trove-Search and retrieve over 5 million Australian and online resources including books, images, historic newspapers, maps, music, archives and more

Waste Vouchers

Another waste voucher should be in the mail at the end of February/early March 2020. They are a postcard size and will be delivered to the street address of every dwelling that receives a road side waste service. (In Nundle this means you will need to pick them up from the Post Office). If you haven't received them in the mail by the middle of March, please call into the Nundle Office of Tamworth Regional Council as vouchers unable to be delivered will be returned to the Nundle Office.

We are working with the Post Office to try and ensure people receive a voucher this time.
